Newsletter of the ExxonMobil Retiree Club of Joliet

NEWSWORTHY

Stay Safe, Stay Well, Stay Home!

The ExxonMobil Retiree Club of Joliet will schedule no new group activities until the Coronavirus pandemic is resolved.

1Q20 HIGHLIGHTS

Bunco/Euchre Potluck—February 6, 2020

We gathered in the Channahon Park District Arrowhead Community Center for food and games. The Program Committee provided chili and chicken tenders. Members carried in sides and desserts. After lunch, we divided into 2 groups for Bunco and Euchre tournament play. Larry Super and Kay Sands were awarded gift cards for winning the most Buncos and the most Bunco points. Cheryl Farkas and John Bradley were awarded gift cards for winning the most Euchre points.

An American in Paris—March 5, 2020, CALLED OFF

The "An American in Paris" event was called off by virtue of member interest not meeting the minimum threshold.

2020 OUTLOOK

Teatro ZinZanni—April 26, 2020, CANCELLED

The performance has been cancelled. Refunds have been provided.

"Let's Go Cubs" Miller Park Day—May 24, 2020, STAY TUNED

The 2020 MLB season is on hold with a start date still TBD. It is doubtful that baseball will be back by this date. But keep your fingers crossed.

Retiree Club Picnic—DOUBTFUL

The traditional June Retiree Club Picnic is highly unlikely for this June. Consideration of a picnic and timing will not be taken up until the Coronavirus pandemic is resolved.

Crosstown Classic SOX vs. CUBS—July 7, 2020, STAY TUNED

The 2020 MLB season is on hold with a start date still TBD. Hopefully, baseball will be back by this date. Keep your fingers crossed.
